Other Support Services

ERB provides different support services to assist ethnic minorities to acquire training and employment information and enrol in ERB courses.

ERB Service Centre

- “ERB Service Centre” in Tin Shui Wai provides information on ERB courses and support services. Registration as member and use of services are free-of-charge
- Workshops and mutual support groups are organised for ethnic minorities. “Training and Career Needs Test”, “Mock Interview System” and training consultancy service are provided to enhance the job search and vocational skills of the members

ERB Service Spots

- ERB has set up 37 “ERB Service Spots” in Kwai Tsing, Tsuen Wan, Kowloon West and Kowloon East districts. They provide enquiry and enrolment services for ERB courses, organise industry seminars and taster courses, and assist the public to register for training consultancy service. Designated activities are organised for ethnic minorities

“ERB Training Net” Course Search Terminals

- “ERB Training Net” course search terminals have been set up at over 100 locations, including ERB Siu Sai Wan Headquarters, “ERB Service Centre”, “ERB Service Spots”, Labour Department Job Centres, Social Welfare Department (SWD) Social Security Field Units and non-governmental organisations commissioned by SWD. The public can obtain information on ERB courses, training centres, services and activities as well as register for training consultancy service through the terminals

Training Consultancy Service

- Training Consultants give advice on suitable training and assist in ERB course enrolment by providing personalised consultation service to ethnic minorities through face-to-face interview or video conferencing. Training Consultants reach out to district organisations to assist social groups with special needs to acquire information on the training and employment front

District-based Activities

- ERB sponsors training bodies to organise district-based promotional activities including promotion booths, district guided tours, course experience activities and online activities to disseminate training and employment information to ethnic minorities

ERB is a statutory body established in 1992 under the Employees Retraining Ordinance. ERB co-ordinates, funds and monitors training courses and services provided by about 80 training bodies. The service targets of ERB are people aged 15 or above with educational attainment at sub-degree level or below. ERB provides around 700 training courses that are market driven and employment-oriented straddling 28 industries and various areas of generic skills. ERB helps trainees map out progression ladders and nurtures more talents for various industries.
